Celebrate Your Senior in the Falcon Yearbook Two Ways

1 Senior Portraits

All Glendale seniors have portrait sessions taken by the school photographer. Only these portraits will be used in the yearbook. Parents may purchase prints from this session, but are not required to do so. The photographer provides drapes, suit and tie, as well as cap and gown portraits if desired.

Students will also submit their senior quote at the time their portraits take place. Please remember these quotes will serve as a permanent record of your senior's time at Glendale. The yearbook advisor and Glendale administration reserve the right to decline quotes due to inappropriate content. Something that may seem funny now, may not when your student is an adult and applying to college, for a job, or running for political office.

Dress your best! Due to COVID19 mitigation guidelines, we will not have the suit and drape service.

2 Recognition Ads

Family or friends may purchase an ad to recognize their senior's accomplishment. Ads come in three sizes: full page, half page, and quarter page. There are color and black & white options. Take advantage of this year's early bird bonus pricing! See back of this page for the order form and pricing.
